

Italian Chamber Music Excursion

"Chi ha avuto l'opportunità di ascoltare il duo Cussino - Luciani sa di aver sentito un brivido speciale . Lo stesso che coloro che hanno avuto il privilegio di godere l'immediatezza e la purezza delle prestazioni che hanno reso noti salotti ottocenteschi , da Vienna a Roma , da Berlino a Parigi . Ambienti in cui il motore della riunione era la gioia di condividere arte e di opportunità per stimolare il genio creatore incontenibile dei partecipanti . Condividere la stessa emozione , musica, poesia , dipinti e ogni altra opera d'arte sono stati presentati in un godimento sublime dei sensi e dello spirito . E con lo stesso atteggiamento che Mo Cussino Simonpietro violoncellista e Mo Antonio Luciani pianista hanno unito i loro talenti per creare un rinnovato e ora ambita tradizione italiana di salotti culturali"

Mya Tannenbaum Landau critico musicale del Corriere della Sera

Mya Tannenbaum Landau, music critic, observes, that anyone who has had an opportunity to listen to the Cussino duo will agree that they deliver an exceptional experience in chamber music. They offer an opportunity to enjoy the intimacy and purity of this music that was made popular in the nineteenth century salons from Vienna to Rome, Berlin to Paris. The salons provided an opportunity for the sharing of art, poetry and music. Here the genius of the musician's and artistic creators could be enjoyed in close proximity and with people of a like-minded passion. Applying the same passion; cellist Simonpietro Cussino and pianist and Antonio Luciani have combined their talents to re-create the atmosphere of the salons and offer a coveted new tradition of cultural chamber music.
